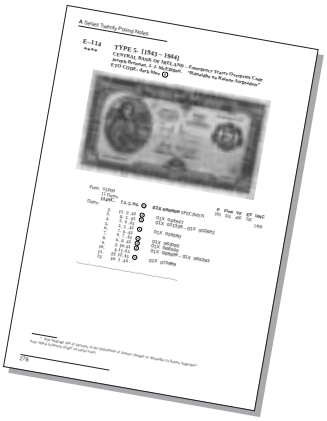
Irish Banknotes

Irish Government Paper Money From 1928

by Mártan MacDevitt



A superb handbook and catalogue of the banknotes of the Irish Free State and the Republic of Ireland, with immensely detailed listings. The main features are:

- Detailed listings of every printing
- Lists of all known prefixes and serial numbers
- Variations of printing
- Errors and varieties
- Market valuations in Euro for all major variations
- Scarcity grading for prefixes
- Detailed listings and pictures of all the rarest banknotes
- In depth background and historical notes on all issues
- Over four hundred super royal octavo pages on the highest quality art paper
- Over three hundred illustrations, with a full colour section of Specimen banknotes
- Casebound with cloth and gilt cover and full colour dust jacket

Over ten years of research involving searching through public and private government and banking archives, examination of the leading banknote collections, and the recording of thousands of notes are distilled into what is undoubtedly the standard reference work on the subject.
